Assignment #2: THE STRUGGLES WE UNDERTAKE
Academic Discipline: HISTORY

ALL PARTS OF THIS ASSIGNMENT ARE DUE IN CLASS ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21st

READING:
Read both of the selections listed below before our class.

- Primary Document: “Statement of Purpose,” National Organization for Women (NOW), 1966

WRITING:
Please TYPE a response to each of these questions. Bring a printed copy of both of your responses with you to class. Each of your responses should be no more than two double-spaced pages.

1. What did the organizers of the National Organization for Women want? What did women's rights mean to them?

2. How is your experience of reading this material different from your experience doing the Literature reading for the first College Day on October 24th? In other words, what does this reading ask of you, as you work to understand and analyze it? Are these skills the same or different than the skills we exercised in reading and discussing the Williams and Rose writings? How?
