

Ny'Asia Flowers

Ny'Asia is a senior at the University of Richmond, originally from Newark, NJ. She majors in Politics, Philosophy, Economics, and Law (PPEL) and has been accepted to George Washington University's Elliot School of International Affairs for graduate school starting in the fall of 2024. Ny'Asia holds multiple leadership roles at the University of Richmond, including Board of Trustee DEIB committee member , peer instructor, and Head Resident Assistant to three hundred students.

Ny'Asia is also the lead communications intern at Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy. As a Bonner Scholar she has amassed more than 800 hours of service in her college career. Ny'Asia is associated with and a member of Phi Alpha Delta (PAD) Law Fraternity and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated. She has a passion for diplomacy, international affairs and social justice initiatives. In her free time, she enjoys volunteering, designing clothes, and planning events.